PABA FOUNDATION

General Information

The mission of the PABA Foundation is to encourage, support and develop the legal education of Filipino-Americans in the legal profession and to promote and sponsor legal scholarship and public interest activities that will directly benefit the Filipino-American community in Southern California. In furtherance of its mission, the Foundation will solicit monetary and in-kind contributions from individuals, organizations and agencies in the public and private sectors to:

- Provide financial assistance to qualified law students who have demonstrated academic excellence in their legal studies and a commitment to social leadership;
- Establish and operate academic and clinical fellowships in various Southern California law schools, government agencies and charitable organizations for legal professionals and law students pursuing careers in the academe or the public interest and providing community services to the Filipino-American community; and
- Develop and subsidize educational programs, resources and events that promote legal awareness among the Filipino-American community such as (a) quarterly legal resource clinics; (b) town hall meetings on relevant legal developments which directly impact the Filipino-American community including but not limited to family law, immigration, business ventures, estates and trusts, criminal matters, taxes and real estate; (c) pamphlets which summarize legal rights and resources (in various dialects); (d) television, radio, internet "roadshows" and segments; and (e) local legal resource centers and libraries.

Proceeds generated from Foundation fundraising activities will be used to provide the following awards to eligible individuals in Southern California:

- $1,000 incentive scholarship for incoming first-year law students;
- $750 to $2,500 merit scholarships for continuing law students (full-time and part-time);
- $500 bar exam grant for law graduates taking the July or February bar exams; and
- $5,000 Foundation fellowship to support post-doctoral or practicing attorneys engaged in: (i) full-time or part-time legal scholarship and/or research in affiliation with a university, school or nonprofit organization in Southern California; and (ii) legal publication of scholarly research work.
